From the Pastor

Happy New Year! I hope you had a moment of respite in the midst of the Christmas machine to enjoy the blessings of family and friends. I hope that when “regular” life begins anew, you can take some of your wonder and joy from the Christmas season and incorporate it into daily life. As we begin this new year I encourage you to find ways to celebrate your blessings by blessing those around you.

In this new year, I am excited to build upon the work that the 5 Practices group started last year. The 5 Practices group spent six months last year thinking, praying about, and exploring who we are as a church. One of the outcomes of this group is to do further work as a congregation so that we might better understand why God has called us to this place at this time. So stayed tuned for more news from the 5 Practices group.

May you have a happy new year filled with endless possibilities and joy, but most importantly may you be surrounded by the love of God as we march boldly into 2018.

Thank you to all who brought in mittens, gloves, hats, and scarves (especially Shirley Schilling who made 100+ scarves). What a blessing these will be for people in need this winter season.

Fellowship Time Thank You

As we come to the end of 2017 the Women’s Guild would like to say a big heart-felt thank you to all who sponsored snacks and treats for Fellowship Time after church services.

“Thank you to Pastor Jeremy, Laurie and Hannah Hylan, Bryan and Jean Dickmann, Richard and Judy Belitz, Florence Hamilton, the Women’s Guild, Linda Mueller, the Middle School Students, Mike and Vickie King, Linda Horn, Tim Bersch and Robin and Elizabeth Passmore, Mason, Jonette, Charlie and Henry White, Christian Education, Carol Ehrenreich, Jim and Gloria Schwarten, and Ken and Denise Cornell.

Thank each of you as you give of your time and treasures that others could enjoy your act of kindness. All is greatly appreciated. God’s many blessings to all of you.

Annual Congregational Meeting
