Gracious God, we acknowledge we are here because of your love. To some of us, your love has appeared as forgiveness. To some, as the joy of service. To some, as courage. To some, your love has appeared as the ability to be generous. However it has appeared for each of us, dear God, help us see your love in our own lives, and then help us share that blessing with others. For it is always true that in sharing, we ourselves are blessed. Amen.
