Prelude

Welcome

Hymn

This is the Day

Call to Worship (unison)

Let us come into the House of the Lord with thanksgiving! Let us make a joyful noise with songs of praise! Oh God, you hear our cries in the wilderness. You answer our prayers and fulfill our needs. When we are lost and wandering aimlessly, You bring us to a land flowing with milk and honey. You are the hope of all the ends of the earth and the farthest seas. Your strength established the mountains. The morning shines with your glory, the evening shouts for joy. You created the land and all that is in it. Your fruits are abundant, your fields full of grain. Let us open our eyes and see the wonders all around us.

Opening Prayer (unison)

Almighty God, you who have enabled us to live in this "sweet land of liberty," grant that this time of remembrance will cause us to appreciate the freedoms we cherish and enjoy. Give us the courage to continue to fight and support all of those who sacrifice themselves for others in your name, in Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.
